Online Resources

This time-saving list of reliable websites includes practical, up-to-date information and services for crime victims and those who serve them. When available, toll-free phone numbers are also provided.

Resource Centers

Center for Victim Research
www.victimresearch.org
A tool for victim service providers and researchers to connect and share knowledge, the Center for Victim Research supports the field in two ways. This OVC-funded organization facilitates access to victim research and data while improving the utility of research and data collection to crime victim services nationwide. VOCA-funded agencies also have complimentary access to subscription-based journal articles in the CVR library. To register from the CVR homepage, click on “Sign in” and “Register” and then click on “VOCA-Funded Agencies.” Once you’re in the CVR library, you will be able to search for both open-access and subscription resources.

National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS)
www.ncjrs.gov
Administered by the Office of Justice Programs (OJP), U.S. Department of Justice, NCJRS provides information on crime, victim assistance, and public safety to support research, policy, and program development worldwide. Trained information specialists are available to answer your questions. Staff can offer referrals, discuss publications, and search for additional resources.

OVC Resource Center (OVCRC)
www.ovc.gov/resourcecenter
The Office for Victims of Crime Resource Center at NCJRS is a comprehensive repository of information for crime victims and victim service providers. With online services accessible 24 hours a day, OVCRC is the central clearinghouse for publications, products, DVDs, and reports from the Office for Victims of Crime. Trained information specialists are available to answer your questions. Staff can offer referrals, discuss publications, and search for additional resources.

• a database of upcoming justice events,
• a virtual library, featuring more than 30,000 victim-related documents, and
• the Justice Information (JUSTINFO) electronic newsletter containing OJP resources, events, funding opportunities, and more.

NCJRS Contact Information:
• Phone: 800–851–3420 or 202–836–6998 (international callers); TTY 301–240–6310
• Email: responsecenter@ncjrs.gov

OVCRC Contact Information:
• Phone: 800–851–3420; TTY 301–240–6310
• Email: askovc@ncjrs.gov
• Order publications and resources online at: www.ncjrs.gov/App/Publications/AlphaList.aspx
The OVC Training and Technical Assistance Center (OVC TTAC) is the gateway to the latest training and technical assistance available for victim service providers and allied professionals who serve crime victims. OVC TTAC’s aim is to build the capacity of professionals and organizations that serve victims of crime nationwide.

OVC TTAC does this by providing training, technical assistance, professional development opportunities, and resources to reach more victims, including those who are historically disadvantaged; by assessing the needs of key constituencies and identifying resources to meet their needs; and by monitoring client satisfaction and measuring the effectiveness of its training over time.

OVC TTAC draws on the expertise of a network of consultants and seasoned victim service professionals with firsthand experience in designing and delivering customized responses to satisfy a variety of training and technical assistance needs. From its comprehensive database of experts, OVC TTAC provides developmental support, mentoring, and facilitation in such areas as program design and implementation, strategic planning, program management, evaluation, quality improvement, collaboration, and community coordination. OVC TTAC also supports the victim services community by providing professional development scholarships to those seeking additional training and educational opportunities.

OVC TTAC is committed to providing in-language services to limited English proficient (LEP), Deaf/hard of hearing, or Blind/low vision victim service providers and allied professionals who use the OVC TTAC website, training resources, and request technical assistance services. OVC TTAC’s Language Access Services include—

- telephone Call Center access in language,
- translated OVC TTAC services Fact Sheets, currently available in Spanish, Simplified Chinese, Vietnamese, Korean, Tagalog, Russian, Brazilian Portuguese, Navajo, Lao, Haitian Creole, Arabic, and Amharic,
- translated trainings upon request, and
- interpreter services for TTA events upon request.

OVC TTAC Contact Information:
- Phone: 866-OVC-TTAC/866-682-8822; TTY 866-682-8880
- Email: ttac@ovcttac.org

Instructor Materials

Ethics in Victim Services
www.ovcttac.gov/ethics

This downloadable version of the instructor-led Ethics in Victim Services training covers common ethical conflicts when providing victim services and how to resolve them by applying ethical standards and decision-making processes. The goal of the training is to increase self-awareness and understanding of how personal attitudes and beliefs influence responses to victims of crime.

Sexual Assault Advocate/Counselor Training
www.ovcttac.gov/saact

This downloadable curriculum uses case studies, role playing, slides, and other interactive exercises to help practitioners increase their understanding of sexual assault and gain the skills needed to assist victims of sexual assault.

Victim Impact: Listen and Learn www.ovcttac.gov/victimimpact

This video series features first person accounts of 14 men and women who share their experiences as crime victims and the ripple effect that victimization can have on family members and the community at large. A companion online-only training curriculum is also available at www.ovcttac.gov/victimimpact and includes a two-part facilitator manual and a participant workbook.

This resource is intended to help offenders to become more aware of the impact that crime has on victims and to take responsibility for their actions and begin to make amends.

It is also an effective training resource for victim service providers seeking to improve their understanding of the physical, emotional, financial, and psychological effects of crime.

Supporting Crime Victims with Disabilities Curriculum (English and Spanish)

Spanish: www.ovcttac.gov/views/TrainingMaterials/dspCVDisabilitiesCurriculum_Spanish.cfm

This downloadable curriculum is designed for victim service providers, advocates for people with disabilities, self-advocates, and allied professionals. Using case studies and small group discussions, participants will examine the prevalence of crime against people with disabilities, perceptions of the criminal justice system, tenets of the disabilities movement, and the impact of disabilities on daily life. Through collaborative activities participants will identify ways the various agencies, organizations, and systems can work together to better serve crime victims with disabilities.

Building Resiliency in Child Abuse Organizations

www.ovcttac.gov/resiliency

This downloadable curriculum is intended for victim service providers who work in agencies interested in and willing to implement policies, supervisory techniques, and competency-based training that support resiliency.

This training is available in three delivery options:

- As a blended training delivered as two webinars held approximately 1 week apart, followed by a short independent study assignment, a 1-day onsite training, and concluding with a final webinar held several weeks following the onsite training.
- As an in-person training delivered in 7 hours.
- As an in-person training delivered in 4 hours.

Integrating Crime Victims’ Issues Into College and University Curricula

www.ovcttac.gov/educators

This teaching resource for faculty members and victim service providers alike is easy to customize to fit your needs and includes the following components:

- Curriculum Kits/Teaching Materials. Nine course modules with class exercises, sample assignments, reading lists, and slides and other electronic and media presentations.
- Faculty Involvement Guide. Steps for creating a supportive learning environment for students, handling disclosures, and providing appropriate support and referrals.
- Student Placement Templates. Materials for increasing graduate student placements in victim services.
Online Trainings

Identity Theft Victim Assistance Online Training: Supporting Victims’ Financial and Emotional Recovery
www.ovcttac.gov/identitytheft

The Identity Theft Victim Assistance Online Training is a user-friendly e-learning tool that provides victim service providers and allied professionals with the knowledge and skills they need to more effectively serve victims of identity theft and assist with their financial and emotional recovery. The training includes a reference library of information on types of identity theft, the various forms and paperwork that may need to be completed, referral agencies and resources, and information on victims’ rights. The training also includes three case studies that highlight different forms of identity theft. The training is structured so that participants assume the role of victim advocate and interact with victims during each phase of recovery.

Expert Q&A
www.ovcttac.gov/expert-qa

Expert Q&A is a national forum designed to help victim service providers communicate with national experts and colleagues about best practices for assisting victims of crime. Each month, a new topic will be presented online, and one or more subject matter experts will be available to answer your questions on this issue.

Online Elder Abuse Training for Legal Service Providers
www.ovcttac.gov/elderabuse

The Online Elder Abuse Training for Legal Service Providers is a user-friendly tool that offers legal service providers the knowledge and skills they need to serve victims of elder abuse more effectively. The training consists of four modules, including: What Every Legal Services Lawyer Needs to Know About Elder Abuse, Ethical Issues and Practical Strategies, Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, and Financial Fraud and Exploitation. This interactive, web-based training program includes a variety of information, tools, and resources, from interactive client scenarios to printable resources for the entire office.

Victim Assistance Training Online (VAT Online)
www.ovcttac.gov/vatonline

VAT Online is a foundational web-based victim assistance training program that offers victim service providers and allied professionals the opportunity to acquire the essential skills and knowledge they need to more effectively assist victims of crime. VAT Online has four sections: Basics; Core Competencies and Skills; Crimes; and Specific Considerations for Providing Victim Services.

Polyvictimization in Later Life
www.ovcttac.gov/polyvictimization

Polyvictimization in Later Life is a 6-hour web-based training presented in five modules. The purpose of the training is to strengthen awareness of polyvictimization in later life and to provide knowledge and skills of professionals to address the needs of victims. The training addresses the context of polyvictimization; victims and perpetrators of polyvictimization; best practices to work with older adults affected by polyvictimization using trauma-informed, ethical, and culturally appropriate practices; and the latest research and best practices to serve this population.
Other Resources

Achieving Excellence: Model Standards for Serving Victims & Survivors of Crime
www.ovc.gov/model-standards
This e-publication provides guidelines and suggestions to help victim service practitioners and program administrators improve the quality and consistency of their response to crime victims. The model standards are intended to enhance victim service providers’ competency and capacity to provide ethical, high-quality responses to crime victims and to meet the demands facing the field today. These standards recommend procedures, describe professional skills, and identify expectations and values necessary for victim service providers.

Existe Ayuda Toolkit
www.ovc.gov/pubs/existeayuda
This toolkit includes replicable Spanish-language tools and resources to help improve the cultural competence of service providers and the accessibility of services for Spanish-speaking victims of sexual violence. Resources include Spanish terms related to sexual assault and human trafficking; PowerPoint slides to use in presentations to promotoras (community health workers) and victim advocates; and a pocket card, handout, fact sheets, and scripts for public service announcements and outgoing answering machine messages.

Faces of Human Trafficking
https://ovc.ncjrs.gov/humantrafficking/publicawareness.html
This video series and resource guide raises awareness of the seriousness of human trafficking, the many forms it takes, and the important role that everyone can play in identifying and serving victims. This multidisciplinary resource includes—

- nine videos in English with Spanish subtitles,
- public service announcements in English, Spanish, Thai, Hindi, and Tagalog,
- a discussion guide,
- four OVC fact sheets, and
- posters designed for service providers and allied professionals, law enforcement, the general public, and victims/survivors.

Helping Victims of Mass Violence and Terrorism: Planning, Response, Recovery, and Resources
www.ovc.gov/pubs/mvt-toolkit Created in coordination with the Federal Bureau of Investigation’s Office for Victim Assistance and the U.S. Department of Justice’s Office of Justice for Victims of Overseas Terrorism, this OVC toolkit is designed to help communities prepare for and respond to victims of mass violence and terrorism in the most timely, effective, and compassionate manner possible. This toolkit provides communities with the framework, strategies, and resources to—

- develop a comprehensive victim assistance plan for responding to incidents of mass violence, terrorism, natural disasters, and high-profile criminal incidents,
- bring key partners together to review existing emergency plans, and to initiate or continue the development of a victim assistance plan within a community,
- establish victim assistance protocols, which can greatly enhance the effectiveness of response and recovery efforts, and
- follow protocols for short- and long-term responses to victims following incidents of mass violence.
Human Trafficking Task Force e-Guide
www.ovcttac.gov/TaskForceGuide
Developed in partnership by the U.S. Department of Justice’s Office for Victims of Crime and the Bureau of Justice Assistance, this guide is a resource to support established task forces and provide guidance to agencies that are forming task forces. Its purpose is to assist in the development and day-to-day operations of an anti-human trafficking task force and to provide fundamental guidance for effective task force operations.

Innovative Practices for Victim Services: Report from the Field
www.ovc.gov/pubs/InnovativePractices
This e-bulletin provides brief descriptions of practices currently used by Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) victim assistance and compensation programs throughout the country. VOCA funding supports many innovative programs and protocols to serve victims more effectively, and this online resource promotes their replication where applicable. The bulletin focuses on six key program areas—

- needs assessment,
- systems advocacy and coordination,
- compensation,
- underserved populations,
- victims’ rights and services, and
- technology.

OVC National Calendar of Victim Assistance-Related Events
https://ovc.ncjrs.gov/ovccalendar
OVC’s National Calendar of Victim Assistance-Related Events lists upcoming conferences, workshops, and notable victim assistance-related events. A special feature allows service providers and allied professionals to add their organizations’ events to the calendar.

OVC Online Directory of Crime Victim Services
https://ovc.ncjrs.gov/findvictimservices
The OVC Online Directory of Crime Victim Services, which lists more than 10,000 programs nationwide, helps crime victims and service providers locate non-emergency services in the United States and abroad. Service providers and allied professionals can add their program to the directory to raise its profile among other providers and crime victims.

OVC TTAC Resource Library
www.ovcttac.gov/resourcelibrary
The OVC TTAC Resource Library uses an organized search tool that brings together materials used as promotional items, reference materials, and more for your organizational development and training needs.

SANE Program Development and Operation Guide
www.ovcttac.gov/saneguide
The purpose of the SANE Program Development and Operation Guide is to provide a blueprint for nurses and communities that would like to start a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) program. For communities with existing SANE programs, the guide serves as a resource to help expand or enhance services provided to the community. This guide is designed to both complement and integrate resources that already exist, such as the National Protocol for Sexual Assault Medical Forensic Examinations, the International Association of Forensic Nurses SANE Education Guidelines, the National Sexual Violence Resource Center.
SANE Sustainability Project, the American College of Emergency Room Physicians Evaluation and Management of the Sexually Assaulted or Sexually Abused Patient, and the Office for Victims of Crime SART Toolkit.

Vicarious Trauma Toolkit
www.ovc.gov/vtt

The Vicarious Trauma Toolkit (VTT) was developed on the premise that exposure to the traumatic experiences of other people—known as vicarious trauma—is an inevitable occupational challenge for the fields of victim services, emergency medical services, fire services, law enforcement, and other allied professionals; however, organizations can mitigate the potentially negative effects of trauma exposure by becoming vicarious trauma-informed. The VTT includes tools and resources tailored specifically to these fields that provide the knowledge and skills necessary for organizations to address the vicarious trauma needs of their staff. The toolkit includes a Blueprint for a Vicarious Trauma-Informed Organization to help organizations begin the process of becoming more trauma-informed.

VictimLaw
www.victimlaw.org

VictimLaw is a comprehensive, online database of more than 26,000 victims’ rights-related legal provisions, including: federal and state victims’ rights statutes, tribal laws, constitutional amendments, court rules, administrative code provisions, attorney general opinions, and case summaries of related court decisions. This user-friendly tool is available free of charge and provides instant access to a wide range of regularly updated legal information.

National Center for Victims of Crime Website
www.victimsofcrime.org

This national not-for-profit organization advocates for the rights of crime victims, trains professionals who work with victims, and serves as a trusted source of information on victims’ issues. The website features a variety of resources, bulletins, and checklists, and houses the National Center’s many resource centers, including the Stalking Resource Center, DNA Resource Center, Financial Crime Resource Center, and the National Crime Victim Bar Association. National, regional, and virtual training opportunities are also highlighted on the website. (This site is not associated with OVC or NCJRS.)

VictimConnect
[www.victimconnect.org / 855–4–VICTIM](http://www.victimconnect.org / 855–4–VICTIM)

VictimConnect, a national helpline and program of the National Center for Victims of Crime, with funding from the Office for Victims of Crime, provides confidential referrals for all victims of crime in the United States. Crime victims can connect with resources, access referrals, and craft next steps to regain control of their lives. VictimConnect has a special focus on populations, crimes, and topics that are generally underrepresented or underserved in victim services. The website includes a searchable referral directory and overviews of specific types of crime as well as information about self-care, options, and rights. Victims can connect with a victim assistance specialist during business hours by chat at www.victimconnect.org or by phone or text at 855–4–VICTIM (855–484–2846).